3.9.1 The Devhula, with the express permission of the Seller, has the absolute discretion to withdraw or re-offer the lot/property for sale, to accept and refuse bids and to re-open the bidding on any lot, should they believe there may be a dispute of any nature (including without limitation a dispute about the validity of any bid, or whether a bid has been made, or whether between two or more Bidders or between Devhula and any one or more Bidder(s)) or error of whatever nature and may further take such other action as in its absolute discretion deems necessary or appropriate. Devhula shall commence and advance the bidding or offers for any lot/property in such increments as they consider appropriate.

3.9.2 Devhula may be entitled to place bids on any lot/property on the Seller's behalf up to the reserve, where applicable.

3.9.3 In terms of Section 3 of the Alienation of Land Act 68 of 1981, it is deemed that upon the fall of the hammer on the highest bid made at the auction, or upon the closure of the auction, the highest bid presented, would automatically constitute a valid and binding offer made by the Purchaser for the lot/property. Devhula shall not be liable for any contractual breach of that sale agreement by either the Seller or the Purchaser.

4. RESERVED PRICE

4.1 If nothing is announced at the auction whether a lot is sold with or without reserve, such lot is sold with reserve and/or sold subject to confirmation.

4.2 In the event where a reserve or minimum price has been placed on a lot/property, such lot/property will be offered for sale at the agreed reserve price. A reserve price shall only be placed on a lot/property, if agreed in writing between the Seller and Devhula prior to the auction. A reserve price, once placed on a lot/property, may not be changed by the Seller without the prior written consent of Devhula. Should the Seller consent to an increase of the reserve on a lot (after the property has already been advertised for auction), Devhula reserves the right to charge the Seller an additional administrative and advertisement fees and auctioneers commission, since the lot/property may not be sold at auction as a result of the increased reserve. The lot/property may then be withdrawn for the scheduled auction date and readvertised for auction on the first available date thereafter.

- 4.3 Where a reserve price has been placed on a lot/property, only Devhula may bid on behalf of the Seller.
- 4.4 Where a reserve price has been placed on a lot/property and Devhula is of the opinion that the Seller or any person acting as agent of the Seller, may have bid on the lot/property (or interferes with Devhula's mandate and the execution thereof), Devhula may knock down the lot/property of the Seller without observing the reserve price and the Seller shall pay to Devhula the commission (as agreed in the signed mandate) and all such expenses (such as advertisement costs, fuel costs, accommodation charges, time spent including travel time to advertise the properties levied at R 2,500.00 per hour plus 15% VAT incurred).
- 4.5 Should no reserve price have been placed on the lot/property, Devhula shall not be liable if the purchase price of the lot/property, is less than the estimated selling price.

- 5.1 Immediately following the closure of the auction/on-line auction on the highest bid, the Purchaser will sign the Deed of Sale in confirmation that the Purchaser offers to purchase the Property on the terms and conditions contained therein, which offer shall remain open for acceptance by the Seller or by Devhula, acting as the Seller's Agent, until 18H00 on the 7th day after the Auction, unless a specific date is specified as the confirmation period in the Deed of Sale, provided the confirmation period has not been extended. The Purchaser and Devhula acknowledge and agree that this provision is inserted and intended for the benefit of the Seller and that the Seller may accept the offer at any time after or on the auction before the confirmation period has expired without having to notify the purchaser or other bidders.
- 5.2 The Purchaser's offer shall be deemed to have been accepted when the Seller or Devhula, acting on behalf of the Seller, has signed the Deed of Sale provided at the end thereof if the reserve price has been met or if the reserve has not been met, but Devhula has discounted its commission until the reserve has been met. The Seller shall not be required to notify the Purchaser of the acceptance of its offer prior to expiry of the confirmation period.
- 5.3 In the event that the reserve price was met during the auction, but the Seller decides to reject the Purchaser's offer, Devhula will repay to the Purchaser any deposit and/or commission paid to it in terms of the Deed of Sale. The Seller will then pay to Devhula any fee or commission not exceeding 10% plus 15% VAT of the purchase price offered (or the reserve price as agreed, whichever one is the highest) by the Purchaser for the lot/property as well as all such expenses (such as auctioneer and advertisement costs (as referred to in clause 3 above), fuel costs, accommodation charges, time spent including travel time to advertise the properties levied at R 2,500.00 per hour plus 15% VAT incurred).
